Suggestion

9 responses

Need to make the syllabus more concise and specific. There is an inclusion of too many topics in one paper in relation to the contact hours. Moreover, too many similar topics are repeated and stretched over the semesters.

Social work is a practice based subject. It's better to incorporate more practical exercise

Need to focus on the curricular aspect

No

Syllabus needs to update once again

Some syllabus needs revision across both the courses to narrow down vast coverage.

The overall curriculum is very good.

With regard to coverage of syllabus; the completion of each course content should be prioritised without any disruption to the course credit period due to extracurricular activities.
