

We Knit 2023

2nd May 2023

7th Mile, Chümoukedima, Nagaland

Introduction:

The Community Development Forum recently organized a sketch competition centered on the theme "Haves and Have-Nots," directly related to Sustainable Development Goals No. 1 - No Poverty and No. 10 - Reduced Inequality. The competition aimed to engage participants in a creative exploration of these critical global issues.

Competition Details:

The sketch competition was skillfully moderated by Thejangulie Cietsorio, who introduced the rules, regulations, and judging criteria to the participants and set the stage for an enriching experience. The judging criteria included factors such as creativity and originality, clarity of theme representation, the quality of artwork, and the demonstration of artistic skills.

Participants were allocated a time frame of 55 minutes to complete their sketches, ensuring a fair and competitive environment. In addition, each participant was responsible for bringing their own materials, further emphasizing resourcefulness and self-sufficiency.

Participants:

The competition saw the active participation of four talented individuals, each representing different forums and organizations:

1. Machamo J Ovung and Pezanguile from the Youth Development Forum.
2. Archana Minz, representing PCT's (possibly a local organization or institution).
3. Apollo Joshou, a member of the Community Development Forum.

Panel of Judges:

The esteemed panel of judges comprised:

1. Dr. Abel, an Assistant Professor with expertise in relevant fields.
2. Sir Alemtemjen Longkumer, a respected authority in the subject matter.

Conclusion:

The sketch competition on the theme "Haves and Have-Nots," organized by the Community Development Forum, served as an invaluable platform for artistic expression and social awareness. By aligning the competition with Sustainable Development Goals No. 1 and 10, the event addressed crucial global challenges.

The meticulous organization of the competition, the adherence to a specific judging criterion, and the provision of a limited time frame showcased the professionalism and commitment of the organizers. Moreover, the active participation of talented individuals from various forums underscored the event's inclusive and collaborative spirit.

The presence of a distinguished panel of judges added credibility to the competition and ensured a fair evaluation process. Overall, the sketch competition was a successful endeavor that not only encouraged creativity but also fostered a deeper understanding of the critical issues of poverty and inequality within the community. It is a testament to the Community Development Forum's dedication to promoting awareness and positive change within the community through artistic expression.

Recorded by:

A Angap Konyak, MSW 4th Semester

Nokito T.Achumi, MSW 2nd Semester

Competition and its Criteria

1. Sketch competition

- a. There should be one participant from each college.
- b. The theme for the sketch competition will be based on the "Haves and Have-Nots". The theme is related to Sustainable Development Goal no 1 and 10.
- c. Participant should bring their own materials. The charts will be provided by the organizer.
- d. The judging criteria will be based on the creativity and originality, clarity of theme, quality of the art work, artistic skills demonstration.

2. Story telling

- a. There should be one participant from each college.
- b. The theme for the story telling is "A Tool for Promoting Peace and Literacy".
- c. The time limit for the story telling will be maximum 5 minutes.
- d. Judging criteria will be based on delivery, expression, body language and figure of speech.
- e. Participants shall not use any materials while presenting stories.

3. Motivational talk

- a. There should be one participant from each college.
- b. The topic for the motivational talk will be "Channelizing Youth Power for Society".
- c. The time limit for the talk will be maximum 5 minutes. Judging criteria will be based on content, delivery and language.

- d. Participants can use ppt (No other materials will be allowed).

4. Cosplay

- a. Free Registration. There shall be no limit in terms of participants.
- b. Props and readymade costume are allowed.

Information

1. Each college is requested to confirm the number of participants before 30th April 2023.
2. There should be one participant from each institute in each competition.
3. There will be registration fee of Rs. 100 per head.
4. The sketch competition and paper presentation will go simultaneously.
5. Attendance is compulsory for NEISSR students. Absentees will be imposed with a fine of Rs. 300 each day.

For further information, please contact us.

Ms. Irangsa Cerai
President, Student's Council
9366537880

Ms. Zhovino Kechü
Asst. G.S, Student's Council
630918954

NORTH EAST INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND RESEARCH

Chümöükedima: Nagaland

NEISSR FEST

1st - 3rd May 2023

Theme:

"Engage, Energize, Evolve"

