POLICY ON NARCOTICS

Policy on Narcotics for North East Institute of Social Sciences and Research (NEISSR)

Introduction

The North East Institute of Social Sciences and Research (NEISSR) is committed to fostering a safe and healthy academic environment for all its students. Recognizing the potential risks associated with narcotics use, this policy outlines guidelines and regulations to ensure the well-being and academic success of our student body.

Scope

This policy applies to all students enrolled at NEISSR, including undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral students, as well as those participating in exchange programs or short-term courses. It encompasses all NEISSR-owned or operated facilities, events, and activities, both on and off-campus.

Prohibited Activities

Possession and Use: The possession, use, distribution, sale, or manufacture of illegal narcotics, including but not limited to marijuana, cocaine, heroin, ecstasy, methamphetamine, and unauthorized prescription medications, is strictly prohibited on NEISSR premises.

Under the Influence: Students are prohibited from attending classes, seminars, workshops, or engaging in any NEISSR-related activities while under the influence of narcotics.

Drug Paraphernalia: Possession of drug paraphernalia, such as pipes, bongs, needles, or any equipment used to consume narcotics, is strictly prohibited on NEISSR premises.

Prescription Medications: Misuse or distribution of prescription medications without proper authorization from a qualified healthcare provider is strictly prohibited.

Consequences of Violations

Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action, which may include but is not limited to:

Administrative Actions: Depending on the severity of the violation, administrative actions may include warning letters, probation, suspension, or expulsion from NEISSR.

Legal Consequences: Violations of state or federal laws regarding narcotics may result in legal action, including fines, imprisonment, or criminal records.

Educational Interventions: Students found in violation may be required to participate in educational programs, workshops, or counseling sessions aimed at addressing substance abuse issues.

Support and Resources

NEISSR is committed to providing support and resources to students in need. These include:

Counseling Services: Confidential counseling services are available to students struggling with substance abuse issues or seeking guidance on narcotics-related concerns.

Educational Programs: NEISSR conducts educational programs and workshops to raise awareness about the risks of narcotics use and provide information on harm reduction strategies.

Health Services: Students can access health services for medical assistance, referrals, or support in addressing substance abuse issues.

Conclusion

NEISSR values the health, safety, and academic success of its students. By adhering to this policy, students contribute to the creation of a positive and conducive learning environment. It is the responsibility of each member of the NEISSR community to uphold these standards and seek help and support when needed. Together, we can promote a campus culture that prioritizes well-being and excellence in education.
