Placement Brochure 2025

NEISSR

Principal's Message

Dear Esteemed Recruiters and Well-Wishers,

Warm greetings from NEISSR,

It gives me immense pride to present our exceptional graduating cohort for the 2024–2025 placement seasons. At NEISSR, we are committed to not only delivering academic excellence but also nurturing future-ready professionals. Our students engage in a holistic learning journey—through rigorous coursework, group work, community development programs, NGO management, social work research, industry-aligned projects, soft skills seminars, internships, and guest lectures. This immersive environment empowers them with critical thinking, effective communication, leadership acumen, and ethical values—traits essential for today's competitive corporate landscape.

Over the years, our students have upheld the institution's reputation by making noteworthy contributions across sectors like peace building, social business, research, social service, and natural farming. As you peruse this brochure, I invite you to explore the diverse experiences, academic rigor, and professional preparedness of our students. I am confident you will discover dedicated individuals equipped to not just meet, but exceed your organizational aspirations.

We deeply value our partnerships with recruiters and look forward to fostering collaborative, long-term engagement. I extend a warm invitation to visit our campus, interact with our talented students, and partake in shaping the next generation of skilled professionals.

With best wishes,

Dr. Fr. C.P. Anto
Principal, NEISSR

Vice-Principal's Message

I am delighted to present the capable and motivated students of North East Institute of Social Sciences and Research (NEISSR), 7th Mile, Chümoukedima, Nagaland for placement in your esteemed institutions, NGOs, companies, etc. NEISSR is always committed to forming the young minds with the right knowledge, skills and experience to face the evolving challenges of the professional world.

I believed that students will give the best of themselves in the assigned job with honesty and integrity. The brochure is a spark of the manifold qualities that are inherent in the students after years of academic inputs and experiential learning towards holistic development. NEISSR is confident that students will contribute positively towards the growth of the organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Rev. Fr. G. L. Khing
Vice-Principal, NEISSR
7th Mile, Chümoukedima, Nagaland

Coordinators Message

Dear Recruiters, Students, and Stakeholders,

It is my privilege and pleasure to welcome you to the Placement Cell of NEISSR for the 2024–2025 placement seasons.

At our Placement Cell, we are unwaveringly committed to equipping every student not only with academic knowledge, but also the practical skills and confidence that today’s community demands. Through a structured blend of workshops, webinars, seminars by NGO experts, mock interviews, resume drives, and industrial site visits, our goal is to build professionals who are adept, adaptable, and ready for the corporate world.

This year has been remarkable with 18 leading companies and institutions participated in our campus recruitment programs. Many of these institutions conducted interviews through online mode and appointed students for paid, half- paid and non-paid internship. They have expressed strong satisfaction with our students’ capabilities and skills.

Our strength lies in personalized support: career counseling, aptitude, research, soft-skills training, and dedicated hand-holding to ensure every student is fully prepared. This holistic approach has consistently led to strong placement statistics and high offer conversion ratios.

To our recruiters, we extend a cordial invitation to engage with our future-ready talent—visit our campus, interact with our students, and explore the skill sets they bring. To our students, I congratulate you on your dedication and readiness—your future.

We wish to express our appreciation and best wishes to each and every student, and we would especially want to congratulate Mr. Mengu Yiese on editing this brochure.

Together, let’s build a sustainable talent partnership.

Warm regards,

Dr. Fr. Robin Thomas
Placement Coordinator, NEISSR

Mr. Vizosul Kikhi
